BALLOT DUPLICATION BOARD

1. WORK WITH ONLY ONE PRECINCT AT A TIME.
2. As the Voted Ballot Container is received from the Ballot Inspection Board or the Computer Operation Board,
3. open the Damaged Ballot Envelope.
3. Enter the precinct number in Column One of the attached log.
4. Enter the time you received that precinct in Column Two.
5. Enter the number of ballots to be duplicated in Column Three.
6. Duplicate one ballot at a time as follows:
 - a. Stamp the word "VOID" on the damaged ballot and the word "DUPLICATE" on the ballot to be substituted. Include precinct number on both ballot cards.
 - b. Number the "VOID" and the "DUPLICATE" ballot with a serial number starting with "No. 1" and enter this serial number in Column Four. The same serial number is entered on both the void and duplicate ballot.
 - c. Duplicate the damaged ballot by having one member of the board call and one member "mark or vote the ballot. Marking or voting the duplicated ballot, check both cards again for accuracy.
7. When all ballots for the precinct have been duplicated, place the "DUPLICATE" cards with the other voted ballot cards.
8. Place the "VOID" ballot cards in the Void Ballot Envelope for that precinct. Write the precinct number on the envelope.
9. Place the Void Ballot Envelopes in the container provided.

11. After all precincts have been processed, the log should be signed by all board members.
